

I. Report Introduction: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. Report Development</li> <li>B. State Suicide Prevention Infrastructure</li> <li>C. Policy Considerations/Recommendation Summary</li> </ul>
II. Overview of Wisconsin Suicide Data – including comparisons to national suicide data
III. Prevention Strategies	Surveillance Data Tables
Increase and Enhance Protective Factors* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. Reduce impact of adverse childhood experiences (ACES) and promote social-emotional development in children</li> <li>B. Increase social connections</li> <li>C. Assist communities, families and individuals in creating suicide-safe environments</li> </ul> * Include description of risk and protective factors and social ecological model	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Mechanisms of Injury (by age group and sex) to include firearm, poisoning, etc.</li> <li>➤ Surveillance data describing risk factors across levels: Individual, Relationship and Community</li> </ul>
Increase Access to Care for At-Risk Populations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. Expand access to services for mental health and substance use disorders as well as suicidal thoughts and behavior</li> <li>B. Expand access to non-clinical support groups and networks</li> <li>C. Decrease stigma associated with help-seeking, mental health and substance use disorders, and suicide through evidence-based and best practices, including participation people with lived experience</li> <li>D. Increase public’s knowledge of risk factors for suicide, recognition of suicide warning signs and preparedness to respond to suicidal individuals</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Surveillance data of At-Risk Populations, to include Suicides, Emergency Department Visits and Hospitalizations                         <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Urban/Rural; WI Department of Health Services Regions; Sex and Age Group; State Mental Health Institutions; Race; Educational Status; Marital Status, Occupation; Military Status, Youth (including Youth Risk Behavior Survey results); Sexual Orientation (YRBS and Trevor Project)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Implement Best Practices for Suicide Prevention Within the Health Care System <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Promote systems-change approach rooted in the belief that suicide among persons receiving health services is PREVENTABLE</li> <li>➤ Increase resources for mental health and health care providers in screening, assessment, and treatment</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Description of Zero Suicide</li> </ul>

Improve Surveillance of Suicide and Evaluation of Suicide Prevention Activities A. Use Wisconsin data to describe the impact of suicidal ideation, attempts, and deaths in Wisconsin, improve data collection, and expand data linkages to further the understanding of suicide B. Improve quantitative and qualitative data collection to better identify and describe portions of the population at elevated risk of suicide in order to guide prevention program efforts C. Improve and expand evaluation of current suicide prevention activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Enhancements being made to surveillance data: National Violent Death Reporting System</li> <li>➤ Prevent Suicide Wisconsin Coalition Survey Information</li> <li>➤ Prevention Program Evaluation Guidance</li> </ul>
IV. Appendices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Key Wisconsin Accomplishments to Date</li> <li>b. Key Findings</li> <li>c. Defining Disproportionate Risk and Health Equity</li> <li>d. Defining Lived Experience</li> <li>e. Voices from the Field (throughout report)</li> <li>f. Safe and Effective Prevention Messaging</li> <li>g. Suicide Prevention Coalitions Map</li> <li>h. Helpful Terms/Glossary</li> <li>i. Program Evaluation Guidance</li> <li>j. Suicide Prevention Resources (throughout the report)</li> </ul>

Please consider providing feedback on this report outline to the Wisconsin Suicide Report Planning Group: <https://www.preventsuicidewi.org/our-work>
Your input is valued and critical to the completion of a report that will effectively inform suicide prevention and policy development across Wisconsin.